Sleuths Mystery Dinner Shows' Newest Mystery, "Holidaze"

Sleuths Mystery Dinner Shows' newest comedy-mystery, "Holidaze," arrives just in time for the holiday season. This hilarious whodunit takes place in the small town of Hillendale - a quintessential Norman Rockwell American town with one traffic light, dessert baking contests, and a Mayberry-esque slow-paced life.

Sleuths invites you to get into the holiday spirit at the town's 108th annual "Holidaze" tree-lighting and costume pageant. Ever-jovial Mayor Rockwell will gladly take time to show you Hillendale's genteel hospitality as he prepares for the return of Styles McQueen, hometown boy who made it big in Hollywood. However, all is not perfect in smallville. Aging beauty queens, deceptive politicians, and other outrageous characters feud. Small-town innocence turns to big-time chaos when the townsfolk discover that they have been part of Styles' national reality show, where hidden cameras have broadcast their every move. The skirmish culminates in one of the townspeople meeting an untimely demise. The local sheriff will depend of YOU to solve the crime.

"Holidaze" will run all year long, since it is designed to celebrate holidays throughout the year including Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter, July 4th, and Halloween. The whodunit is one of thirteen different mysteries performed nightly at Sleuths Mystery Dinner Shows. Each show lasts approximately 2 ½ hours and includes a delicious dinner, dessert, and unlimited beer, wine, and soft drinks. Sleuths is in its 18th year and has three beautiful theatres located at 8267 International Drive in Orlando. Call 800-393-1985 for information. Group rates are available for parties of 15 or more.
